

President Washington

George Washington at Princeton, 1779
Charles Wilson Peale

The Lansdowne Portrait, 1796
Gilbert Stuart

George Washington, 1791
Jean-Antoine Houdon

George Washington, 1840
Horatio Greenough

Parson Weems' Fable, 1939
Grant Wood

“Hail Columbia”

- Philip Phile composed “The President’s March” in 1793
- in 1798, Joseph Hopkinson set patriotic words to the march
- Hopkinson, a signer of the Declaration, had been composing since the 1760s

